

I feel it's my right to privacy to add my name to a no call list. If the Consumer Bankers Association wishes to contact someone they have the right to mail it to them. If this association continues down this path they may find more people less likely to do business with them in fear of receiving unwanted phone calls. Please do not weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law.